How Does a Father Do It?

Finding the right balance between the work place and home can be a guilt trip, but it doesn't have to be that way. Look over the list below of possible improvements you can make in the way you balance career and family. Look at this list in a positive way by imagining yourself already doing some things on the list.

- Keep it simple. If it doesn't add to the happiness of your family, then change it.
- Set aside time after dinner to help your kids with their homework.
- Remember what you were like as a kid, and cut some slack for your kids. Keep important things in focus: family unity, values, fun and education.
- Listen at all times: to mealtime stories, to the chatter over dishwashing, to bedtime prayers.
- Create family rituals: Saturday morning pancakes, Sunday night pizza, Monday night for the Master, once a month ACCS/ MCS Fish Fry
- Include children in your planning and decision-making regarding things like weekly chore assignments, summer vacation plans and special monthly events.
- Hold family councils once a month to discuss pet peeves, rules, rewards and punishments.
- Be both loving and firm in setting, negotiating and enforcing rules.
- Let the answering machine take calls during the dinner hour and at bedtime. Or, take the phone off the hook.
- Love isn't something you buy. Your kids spell it T-I-M-E and it costs more than M-O-N-E-Y.
- It's better to play 15 or 20 minutes spontaneously and have fun, than to do chores, work or other priorities, than to spend all day at the zoo (or ballgame or the mall) feeling angry, guilty, or worried.
- Find one common mission or cause that your family loves to do together, instead of splintering your volunteer activities in several different directions.

(This list was gleaned from “How Does a Mother Do It?”)

BIBLE VERSE OF THE WEEK

"And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord. Then Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and said: "O Lord God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. Incline Your ear, O Lord, and hear; open Your eyes, O Lord, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God. Truly, Lord, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them. Now therefore, O Lord our God, I pray, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the Lord God, You alone."

II Kings 19:14-19

A NOTE FROM TERRY

This past week we had several of our teens out at Gulf Coast Bible Camp and I know that they had a great week. On Thursday evening, Aaron Myers, Nathan Myers, and Kelley Russo responded to the invitation, requesting prayers on their behalf for different struggles in their lives. We are very proud of the courage of all of our teenagers; let's pray for them and especially these that came forward. Have a great week!

I Love You, Terry

MCS ANNUAL MEETING

Mobile Christian School will be having their annual meeting on June 21 at 7 p.m. This meeting will take place in the schools library. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.

GOD'S MINORITIES

During the time Noah was building the ark, he was very much in the minority- but he won. When Joseph was sold into Egypt by his brothers, he was a decided minority- but he won. When Gideon and 300 followers, with their broken pitchers and lamps, put the Midianites to flight, they were an insignificant minority- but he won. When David, ridiculed by his brothers went out to meet Goliath, in size he was a conspicuous minority- but he won!

What about you, my friend? Are you in the minority, standing with Christ, or are you on the other side? Why not stand where the faithful have always stood- in the minority.
